Friday Morning 9 A.M.

My Dear Mrs Chapman, I have waited several minutes to see you, but as I have an appointment at ¼ past 9 this morning, I must wait no longer.
I have made a thorough search for the "box fixtures" but am unable to learn of their whereabouts.
I will write something this P.M. for the Liberty Bill. I think I shall be unable to crowd what I wish to say in less than two pages. I will submit however to your decision.
With great affection Affectionately Yours for the cause
J. A. Collins

J. A. Collins
Esqr
1842

Ms. A.4.6A. 1.22